CONDITIONS OF ENTRY

The judge's decision is final.

PROTESTS: Not accepted. This is an encouragement show, if you need to protest, it's not the event for you.

PAYMENT: Entries to be paid in cash only. Cheques will not be accepted. No refund on tickets. Ground fee of $5 per competitor must be paid before entering any classes.

DRESS: All riders must wear an EA approved safety helmet with the chinstrap securely fastened whilst mounted. Riding boots must be worn at all times while mounted. Neat and clean T-Shirt with collar and sleeves is required in all classes. No singlets allowed.

INSURANCE: For insurance purposes, all the competitors must either be a member of GRC or EA. GRC Memberships available via Nominate for $30. Proof of membership to be produced at time of entry if requested.

RULES: Any competitor found using a banned substance will be disqualified. Excessive use of the whip or spurs by any competitor will result in the competitor and exhibit being disqualified. Dogs permitted on grounds only if leashes. GRC reserves the right to alter the program without notification should any circumstance warrant this action. GRC reserves the right to measure all horses competing in classes with height stipulations. Horses may be subjected to measurement on the day.

MAIDEN: Open only to a horse that has not won a first at a hack or Agricultural show.

NOVICE: Only open to a horse that has not won a Champion at a Hack or agricultural show.

PLEASURE: To be ridden in with one hand in a plain snaffle bit. No nosebands, whips or spurs.

JUMPING EQUITATION: A short workout, followed by course of 3 jumps to be ridden at trot or canter. Points awarded for style, not speed.

NOVELTY CLASSES: Open to all competitors. To begin after Jumping Equitation has finished. Please organise your own teams for the relays.
